BLOOD RED MOON DELUSION of the ZIONISTS cloaked in Judaism in order to DESTROY IT, AND
ALL RELIGIONS

Orchestrated by the Babylonian Astrologers via Zionist Judaism!

Jeremiah 7-9

If you don't research this, and know your history, you will never be able to SEE!

Why are we talking about blood red moons now?

There is a lot of coverage in faith based ministries surrounding the blood red moons occurring in 2014 and 2015 and we want to investigate for ourselves what all this means rather than just accepting the official line being presented. Let us discern for ourselves. Is it possible that there is some deception afoot? Is this an egregor to draw energy toward something? Is it a device by evil men being led by evil spirits to deceive people into following their calendar and give more power and control to them? Is it a device to prepare the people for a false second coming? Is it aligned to ancient occult practices? Etc, etc... NOAHIDE LAW SITE ALSO TO BE READ A BREAKDOWN

We are trying to determine just how the Zionists pre-staged these “phenomena” to support their calendar, and thus create the strong delusion which the Noahide Laws will be a part of.

What is a blood red moon?

The moon is said to be blood red when the visible surface appears to the observer as being red in color instead of its usual whitish grey color. It is somewhat subjective as to whether each person would call the color blood red, or just red, light red etc..The common term however is that of a blood red moon.

How does it occur?

The moon takes on the red color when it passes through the shadow that the earth casts into space. This shadow is red at the edges due to sunlight being scattered by passing through the earth’s atmosphere. The other colors of the spectrum are removed – similar to what happens at sunset where the red is more dominant.

When does it occur?

A blood red moon can only occur during a lunar eclipse. An eclipse can only occur when the sun, earth and moon are aligned.

Where does it occur?

The blood red moon obviously occurs in space but the ability to observe it with your own eyes depends on where you are located on the earth. Some parts of the earth that are facing out into the shadow cast by the earth to make the eclipse, will be able to see the whole event, usually lasting a few hours. Other people will be able to observe some of the eclipse and still others, due to their location on the earth away from the shadow of the eclipse, will not be able to see anything.

THE BLOOD RED MOONS IN 2014 AND 2015

When are the blood red moons supposed to occur?

April 15 2014 – This coincides with the first day of unleavened bread on the official Jewish calendar. OVER NORTH, CENTRAL, AND SOUTH AMERICA. MARS IN WOMB/BELLY OF THE VIRGIN, SATURN IS IN THE SCALES, AND JUPITER ON THE WESTERN HORIZON IN BETWEEN THE TWINS. BELOW THE HORIZON OF NORTH AMERICA SEEN FROM OTHER PARTS OF THE EARTH, VENUS IS IN THE WATER BEARER WITH NEPTUNE. MERCURY, URANUS, AND THE SUN ARE IN THE TWO FISHES.

October 8 2014 – This coincides with the first day of Sukkot on the official Jewish Calendar. OVER NORTH AMERICA AND CENTRAL AMERICA 10TH HOUR IN PISCES TO THE 12TH OF NIGHT IN THE WEST

April 4 2015 – This coincides with the first day of unleavened bread on the official Jewish Calendar. OVER NORTH AMERICA AND CENTRAL AMERICA 10TH HOUR IN LIBRA TO THE 12TH OF NIGHT IN THE WEST

September 28 2015 – This coincides with the first day of sukkot on the official Jewish Calendar. STELLARIUM SHOWS THE 27TH AND IT'S THE ONLY ONE SEEN FROM YISRAEL. STARTS IN 10TH HOUR FULL THE 11TH AND INTO THE 12TH IN THE WEST IN PISCES.

(see Chabad link)

Just because these eclipses coincide with the Jewish calendar doesn't mean they coincide with YHWH's calendar! The assumption that the Jewish calendar equals YHWH's calendar has already been discussed in previous paradigm shift shows (reference). Using eclipses on Jewish calendar dates to somehow validate that the Jewish calendar is YHWH's calendar is like using the geological column to prove the age of fossils. These eclipses can be worked out well in advance and so the deception of the Jewish calendar dates could easily have been manipulated to align with these and set up for another deception.

Where will they be visible?

From an earthly perspective:

Over North and South America. None of the blood moons will be seen from Yisrael except one with the last trailing part.

From a heavenly perspective:

In the sign of Virgo (Bethulah – the virgin) - Virgo is the 6th sign in the zodiac.

Begins at midnight, two 6 sixes, on 4-15-2014 with the sign of Virgo 666, Virgo is 11th sign, with the equator and prime meridian crossing in the womb/vagina area of Virgo, the moon is slightly below aligning with Spica, the 15th brightest star in the heavens, 1 + 5 = 6. 4-15-2014 adds up to 17, the death and resurrection day of Osiris.

Begins to cross prime meridian with half the moon eclipsed at 33mintues after the 6th hour of the night on their prime meridian, the opposite of the 6th hour of the day when Yashuah was hung up

Beginning of darkness? Mars the god of war is in Virgo as well

Blood begins to flow as the menstruating woman begins to cross the prime meridian and aligning with Spica or the 15th brightest star in the heavens known as Spica. The stars are called Gamma Virginis, Virginis is latin for???.

SPICA

The original Hebrew of this star is Tsemech (branch – strong H6780 - but used exclusively of the messiah). This word only occurs in Jeremiah 23:5, Jer 33:15, Zechariah 3:8, Zechariah 6:12 and Isaiah4:2. There are other Hebrew words for branch but this one is very special. This Hebrew word appears on ancient star maps but has been lost in modern times with the latin Spica now common.

The name Spica derives from Latin spīcavirginis "Virgo's ear of grain" (usually wheat). In Chinese astronomy, the star is known as Jiao Xiu 1 (角宿一) in Jiao Xiu, one of the Chinese constellations. In Hindu astronomy, Spica corresponds to the Nakshatra Chitra. The 17th century German astronomer Bayer and others referred to the star as Arista.

Medieval names include Azimech, from Arabic السماك الأعزل al-simāk al-a'zal 'the Undefended', and Alarph, Arabic for 'the Grape Gatherer'. Other titles include Sumbalet ("the corn ear", Arabic name for Virgo), Sombalet, Sembalet, Eleandri, Shibbōleth, Citrā, Sa-Sha-Shirū, Kió, Repā.^[19]

In medieval astrology, it was a Behenian fixed star, associated with the emerald and sage. In his Three Books of Occult Philosophy, Cornelius Agrippa attributes its kabbalistic symbol  to Hermes Trismegistus.

Hipparchus used the movements of Spica to determine precession. Considered the greatest astronomer of antiquity and most would say ever, Hellenistic from Turkey, created Trigonometry.

Occultic connections

Moon represents Isis and a blood red moon represents her menstruation. Kings, priests, and the elite drink the blood of menstruation, thinking it to be the golden nectar of life, knowledge, and understanding. The menstrual blood is idolized because it is thought to contain the power of regeneration.

Moon almost aligns with the star Spica in Virgo, the wheat, Hermes and Thoth, genetics into Isis to give birth to the reborn Osiris as Horus his son. Spica is said to tend to the hallowed temples of the gods.

Menat (ancient Egyptian mnj.t) was a name used for the goddess Hathor.^[1] With a slightly different hieroglyphic spelling,^[2] it referred to an ancient Egyptian artifact which, like the sistrum, was closely connected with the goddess Hathor.^[3] It was held in the hand by its counterpoise and used as a rattle by Hathor's priestesses.^[4] Often it was worn as a protective amulet, even by Apis bulls, the sons of Hathor.^[5]

The necklace was meant to ensure good luck and fortune and to protect against evil spirits. It was also worn for protection in the afterlife and is often found buried with the dead, given as a grave gift since Ramesside times (the Nineteenth and Twentieth Dynasties that comprise the last two-thirds of the period known as the New Kingdom).^[8] Worn by women, it was expected to foster fruitfulness and good health, while among men it signified virility.

Heze Virginis – meaning under the girdle, is where one of the two points where the celestial equator crosses the ecliptic. Ra communicated through Hathor's 3rd eye. Hathor had to be stopped by Ra from destroying lower Egypt by getting him drunk on blood and beer.

April 1 (King World News) - "On this day in 1564, the government of France adopted a complete change in calendar. They opted for the new improved calendar, thus changing New Year's Day from April 1 to January 1. Many ancient cultures had traditionally set the year's beginning with spring. The rebirth of the earth was seen as a logical new beginning. But this new calendar dictated it would be January 1st so old habits were to be discarded and new concepts learned.

It was not the first time that a nation had changed its calendar. But it was the first time that a country with such a culture and a sense of humor put itself through the time warp of calendar change. So, as with any social revolution, the trendy, the with it, younger generation began crafting ways to embarrass the old Fogeys.

Even back then New Years had been a time of parties and balls. So, the new kids on the rue decided to send some aristocratic codgers invitations to the "King's New Year Masquerade". Since the King was stuck with the new calendar (he had proclaimed it) there was, of course, no Gala. But the new kids laughed and pointed at the costumed crowd of old timers who showed up for the "Ball that never was". They called the people who got "hooked" on the phony invitations "Poisson d'Avril" or "The April Fish". That tradition we believe led to further pranks on the Fools of April.

To celebrate have a good time. But check any invitations - - and watch the calendar.

APRIL IS ALWAYS A BLOODY MONTH!!!!

Date of infamy for America — April 19 and the days around it

This 'natural year opening range' has diverse — and seemingly contradictory — implications. As just explained, it is a time when much of nature comes back to life.

Paradoxically, it is when man often incites war (and the end of many lives). Nowhere has this remained more constant than in the histories of America and Israel.

I have explained this concept many times before, but it is also the single most requested compilation of analysis from readers. So, I will briefly recap it for the sake of context ...

In short, I have termed the date of April 19 (sometimes extending to the days surrounding it) as the 'date of infamy' for America.

The following are just a few of the events that have occurred on this date and have impacted/governed America's destiny ... beginning with our independence (and incorporating almost every major, decisive war in our history) ...

Start of Revolutionary War — April 19, 1775

Battle of San Jacinto/end of Texas Revolution — April 19-21, 1836

Start of Mexican-American War — April 25, 1846

Start of Civil War — April 12, 1861

Start of Spanish-American War — April 26, 1898

Franklin D. Roosevelt announces U.S. will leave gold standard — April 19, 1933

Bay of Pigs invasion failure — April 17-19, 1961

End of Vietnam War — April 30, 1975

Operation Praying Mantis was on April 18, 1988. Attack by U.S. naval forces in retaliation for the Iranian mining of the Persian Gulf and the subsequent damage to an American warship. This battle was the largest of the five major U.S. surface engagements since the Second World War.

The April 19/20 date has pinpointed many events of great 'civil unrest' and/or domestic terrorism in the U.S. They include:

ATF raid on Covenant of the Sword and the Arm of the Lord (CSA) — April 19-21, 1985
(linked to the Oklahoma City bombing a decade later)

Explosion on the USS Iowa (speculated to be an act of sabotage/suicide, but never proven) — April 19, 1989

Waco/Branch Davidian raid by FBI/ATF — April 19, 1993

Oklahoma City Bombing — April 19, 1995

Columbine High School massacre — April 20, 1999

Additional events:

Anti-Jewish riots break out in Palestine — April 19, 1936

U.S.S.R. performs nuclear test at Semipalatinsk, Eastern Kazakhstan, U.S.S.R. — April 19, 1985

Benedict XVI, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, becomes the 265th pope — April 19, 2005

The historical date of infamy for Israel and her enemies – April 20/21

This date has also had a dramatic impact on Israel and Jews. In the last 2,000 years, Jews have had many enemies and many antagonists; but three, in particular, stand out:

Birth of Rome/Roman Empire

Islam/Mohammad

Nazi Germany/Hitler

What do they have in common? They were all born on April 20/21.

The birth of Rome (by Romulus) is dated as April 21, 753 B.C.

The birth of Mohammad is dated as April 20, 571 A.D.

The birth of Adolph Hitler was April 20, 1889

Additional:

Israel faced the Great Arab Revolt of April 19, 1936

The Warsaw Ghetto Uprising began April 19, 1943

The ascension of Gamal Abdel Nasser in Egypt on April 18, 1954. Nasser was Israel's lead antagonist for almost two decades. He was responsible for three wars with Israel from 1956–1970. He was also responsible for the first United Arab Republic — in 1958–1961, a concept that could reach a more cohesive realization in the coming years.

To say the least, this has been a very significant period of time for centuries.

Acts 2:20 (KJV): The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come.

Pastor Mark Biltz of El Shaddai Ministries in Puyallup, Washington click here has been sharing with us some remarkable discoveries on the blood-red moon and Jewish feast connections in the past three months. He now has some new discoveries.

I have known Mark for four years and have spoken at his church twice in the Tacoma, Washington, area. He has been an avid student and teacher of the Jewish Feasts and their awe-inspiring connections to the Lord's earthly events.

Mark said he had found my blood-red moon work interesting and began looking into possible connection to past and future Jewish Feasts at which time he found very significant connections.

I have provided blood-red moon information, and information on the coming total solar eclipses of 2008, 2009 and 2010—which all fall on the 1st of Av.

Seven back-to-back, blood-red moons have fallen on the first day of Passover and Sukkot, with the eighth time coming in 2014 and 2015

Mark found that we have had blood-red moons on the first day of Passover and the first day of Sukkot on back-to-back years seven times since 1 A.D. Three of these occurrences were connected to 1492 (the final year of the Spanish Inquisition), 1948 (statehood for Israel and the War of Independence), and 1967 (the Six-Day War) — some of the most significant days in Jewish history.

The others were in 162/163 A.D., 795/796 A.D., 842/843 A.D. and 860/861 A.D. We don't have any historical connections for these years at this time, but we do know of significant Jewish persecution during the eighth and ninth centuries.

In all eight examples, the eclipses have fallen or will fall on the first day of Passover and Sukkot.

The eighth occurrence of back-to-back, blood-red moons will be in 2014–2015.

So what does the period of time from 2013 to 2015 portend for Israel and the world?

We will closely watch the peace efforts in Israel in 2008 to see if a peace deal is signed — knowing that 2015 would be seven years later. I am not date-setting, and I certainly won't speculate, but the lineup of occurrences is very intriguing.

Solar eclipses of 2008, 2009 and 2010 — and their connection to the month of Av

Additionally, Mark has discovered through NASA that there will be three annual solar eclipses on the 1st of Av, beginning this year and running through 2010. We know that the month of Av — and especially the 9th of Av — has been the most trying period throughout history for the Jewish people.

Total solar eclipses have been a bad omen for the nations, while blood-red moons have been a bad omen for the Jewish people and Israel.

Three sets of blood-red moons that corresponded to significant events:

The Spanish Inquisition final year 1492 when the Alhambra Decree ordered all remaining Jews who would not convert to Christianity to leave Spain, the 1948 War of Independence and the 1967 Six-Day War had back-to-back, blood-red moons occur on the first day of Passover and Sukkot the following two years or beginning the same year of the 1967 Six-Day War for two years.

The Spanish Inquisition — 1492

- * Passover, April 2, 1493
- * Sukkoth, Sept. 25, 1493
- * Passover, March 22, 1494
- * Sukkoth, Sept. 15, 1494

The War of Independence — 1948

- * Passover, April 13, 1949
- * Sukkoth, Oct. 7, 1949
- * Passover, April 2, 1950
- * Sukkoth, Sept. 26, 1950

The Six-Day War — 1967

- * First Day of Passover, April 24, 1967
- * First Day of Sukkoth, Oct. 18, 1967

What will occur in the 2013–2015 time period?

- * First Day of Passover, April 15, 2014
- * First Day of Sukkoth, Oct. 8, 2014
- * First Day of Passover, April 4, 2015
- * First Day of Sukkoth, Sept. 28, 2015

Fall Feasts in 2015

- * Rosh Hashanah (The Feast of Trumpets), Sept. 14
- * Yom Kippur (The Day of Atonement), Sept. 23
- * Sukkoth (The Feast of Tabernacles), Sept. 28

This year's blood-red moon

During this year's Feb. 21 "blood-red" moon, Israeli Defense Minister Ehud Barak and IDF Chief of Staff Gabi Ashkenazi spoke of preparation for war with Hezbollah and Hamas, and both those terror organizations leaders were bold in their rhetoric against Israel in this time of great tension.

Other interesting facts

- * Passover is the first annual feast
- * Sukkoth is the seventh and final annual feast
- * Av is a month of mourning for the Jews
- * The 17th of Tammuz to the 9th of Av is a 21-day period of mourning for the Jewish people (more info below)
- * The next seven year cycle begins on Rosh Hashanah on Sept. 30, 2008, and ends on Rosh Hashanah on Sept. 13-14, 2015
- * The sabbatical year in the seven-year cycle begins on Rosh Hashanah on Sept. 25, 2014, and ends on Rosh Hashanah on September 13-14, 2015 — the day of a partial solar eclipse

2000-year history of blood-red moons' connection to Passover and Sukkot

Mark says that during this century, the only string of four consecutive blood moons that coincide with God's holy days of Passover in the spring and the autumn's Feast of Tabernacles (also called Sukkoth) occur in 2014 and 2015 on today's Gregorian calendar.

He noticed a pattern:

There were no astronomical back-to-back blood-red moon events in the 1800s, the 1700s or the 1600s. In the 1500s, there were six, but none of those fell on Passover and Sukkoth. The 2014/2015 events will be the last this century.

Total solar eclipses and the month of Av

On the first of Av in 2008, 2009 and 2010, there will be total solar eclipses.

NASA: Total solar eclipses occur on these dates:

- * Aug. 1, 2008 (1st of Av)
- * July 22, 2009 (1st of Av)
- * July 11, 2010 (1st of Av)

The 1st of Av falls on these dates in 2008, 2009 and 2010:

- * Aug. 1, 2008 (5768)
- * July 21, 2009 (5769)
- * July 11, 2010 (5770)

NOTE: The first of Av begins at sundown and ends at sundown the following day.

The Month of Av Disaster and Consolation

by Rebbetzin Tzipporah Heller

The Month of Av Disaster and Consolation - click here.

By every measure the Jewish month of Av is tragically unique, one in which the worst disasters in our history took place.

The 15th of Av was a time of joy. In ancient times it was a day in which marriages were arranged and new beginnings celebrated. It was a time in which we began again, expressing not just who we don't want to be but who we can be.

Jewish history: Aaron died on 1st of Av (chabad.org)

Aaron died on the first day of Av (in the year 2447). He was 122 years old when he died, being three years older than Moses.

The entire people of Israel, both men and women, mourned the death of Aaron for 30 days. Everybody knew Aaron as a great lover of peace, who brought love and harmony among people and in many a home.

17 Tammuz to 9 Av — 21 days of mourning

The 21 days from 17 Tammuz to 9 Av, and the fast days of 17 Tammuz and 9 Av, are times of morning for the Jewish people.

The fast of the 17th of Tammuz, the day of the breaching of the walls of Jerusalem, marks the beginning of the "Three Weeks." The fast of the 9th of Av commemorates the day of the actual destruction by fire of the Holy Temple and is the last day of the Three Weeks. The Three Weeks is a period of mourning over these destructions.

- * Sunset July 29 – sundown July 30, 2009
- * Sunset July 19 - sundown July 20, 2010
- * Sunset Aug. 8 - sundown Aug. 9, 2011
- * Sunset July 28 - sundown July 29, 2012
- * Sunset July 15 – sundown July 16, 2013
- * Sunset Aug. 4 - sundown Aug. 5, 2014
- * Sunset July 25 – sundown July 26, 2015

Chart of 2014-2015: four blood-red moons and two solar eclipses

Mark prepared the following chart that shows the years 2014 to 2015.

1st 2 tetrad witnesses after Israel became a nation, and then again when they recaptured Jerusalem.

This is our 3rd warning.

Based on what happened in 1948 and in 1967, there is a high probability of a major prophetic war that will involve Israel. At least a few major biblical wars are yet to come: the Isaiah 17 war, the Psalm 83 war, the Ezekiel 38 war, and the Zechariah 14 war. War often has a huge effect on the economy, which based on the shemittah-year pattern, could be the other high-probability event.

This could be the final curtain call b4 the Great Tribulation.
